SureTest®

Intelligent Healthcare IT Automation

Testing Doesn't Have to Be Tedious. Let Us Help.

Health systems spend too much time manually testing EHR, third-party, and enterprise applications. It's costing a lot of employee hours and, in turn, adds to the already mounting levels of burnout.
18K to 32K Hours + $1.2 to 2M

Spent annually on manual EHR, third-party, and enterprise application testing.
