

M&A INTEGRATION

Optimum's enterprise technology M&A expertise

*When two become one, Optimum Healthcare IT is your strategic advisor and partner.
We help organizations transform for the future. Our services are aligned to support every phase of your post-merger & acquisition integration journey.*

Mergers and acquisitions (M&A) in the healthcare industry require significant IT planning. Common challenges to the new IT landscape include system integration, data consolidation, security and privacy measures, infrastructure harmonization, standardization, and cultural change. The journey, while exciting, is complicated.

We guide our healthcare partners through each of the M&A integration steps toward a unified digital future. Our holistic perspective helps you determine the scope of integration, standards and consolidation strategies for legacy platforms, operational considerations, enterprise standards, workflows, team capacity, and much more. Optimum has capabilities spanning all aspects of healthcare IT integration and IT merger experience to ensure successful planning, change management, and execution.
